What it means to be a child:

I live in the present.

I have different priorities.

My brain is still developing.

Managing my emotions is hard.

I don't always choose the right actions.

I need guidance not punishment. Be patient with me and help me to learn.

Lily PED
Potentiel · Education · Développement
Potential · Education · Development